

SECOND JUBILEE DRIVE.
THEIR MAJESTIES IN SOUTH LONDON.

257141

London road toward Elephant and Castle. All-----

-----South London lines-----

----up to welcome their ~~majesties~~ the King and Queen. Elephant and Castle reached, passed-----

----and Camberwell Green rings with the cheers---

---of thousands as their Majesties leave their carriage to meet the Mayors and Town Clerks of Camberwell, Deptford, Greenwich, Lewisham, Woolwich and Southwark.---EFFECTS-----

EFFECTS--TWO SHOTS.

The presentations commence. Their Majesties are almost hidden from the scores of--- ---thousands lining the pavements, but----

----the people still cheer and content themselves----

--for the moment, reserving their loudest----

---yells for the Royal reappearance. Enthusiasm is amazing----

---despite the fact that hundreds of the rather slightly clad kiddi must-----

---be fairly chilly. They have been here over two---

---hours. I asked one kiddi in a bunch if she thought it was worth it; and nearly started a riot. I discovered that patriotism is the only currency for friendship down this way. Camberwell New Road is tl-day a royal road in more senses than one. The people shout "God bless their Majesties" and they mean it --not arf they dont!
