

TOWER OF LONDON PAGEANT.

REHEARSALS IN HISTORIC SETTING.

---

Picture:-

The Jubilee spirit has got hold of even--

--the solid, stolid, old Tower of London. The Tower Pageant makes time slip--

--a few eogs which puts--

--the clock back--

--half a century. King Henry V is just arriving, all flushed--

--with victory, from the Battle of Agincourt, and everybody goes frightfully gay.

Girls dance. Ladies, dressed in the newest old fashions, drop courtesays, throw roses, and--

--blow kisses! While yeoman blow the-- --froth off large stoops of ale, and with sack, or--

--malnsey, according to pocket, toast His Majesty's safe return from the-- --French Conquest.

This is just a rehearsal of one of many picturesque incidents--

--in the Tower Pageant.

A most interesting show, in which over a thousand children take part.
