JOHNNY KING'S GREAT FIGHT.

BANTAM TITLE REGAINED.

---

Picture.:- Belle Vue, Manchester, stages the Fight for the Bantamweight--

--Championship of Great Britain, and the Lonsdale Belt. Johnny King V Len Hampston. Hampston starts well,--

--but King's experience gives the former bantamweight champion a great advantage. All--

--the same King finds it no easy task to subdue--

--the fast work at close quarters put in by the--

--Leeds man. The display of ring-craft is hardly worthy of--

--a title fight. Neither of the combatants showing the form one--

--might expect. After seven rounds of the fifteen Hampston shows signs of slowing up. King begins to take the--

--Fight over as it were. At Round 15 Hampston is out on his feet.

He's a great fighter--

--and will do better yet. King is declared winner on points. A decision which--

--is boosed loudly. Why, I don't know
