

ERRAND BOYS 'DERBY'
RACE THROUGH HULL STREETS.

2-252141

Eighty entries for the Hull classic-----

---the errand boys Derby. The starter gives the jockeys their numbers and---

---the field advances to the tapes. The mounts are very quiet but the riders are eager to get away. The---

---Chief Constable watches---

---the course and-they're off-----

---each getting into his stride with-----

---the greatest of ease-----

---just like the man on the flying---

---ring off please--wrong number. Up Park Street, down Dering ham street the runners dash, hugging the tram---

---rails. The first obstacle proves difficult to get round---

---Mounts and jockeys---

---shy and there's nearly a ----

---crash. Once cleared---

---of they go again. Cecil Road, Paragon Square, and down the tram straight -----

--- to the post at Corporation Field. There's not much in it. The prize is small, but its the glory-----

---the kudos, the cachet -- hey, Gordon---

---Richards, steady with that slider.
