

141230-2

CART HORSE PARADE
FESTIVAL IN REGENT'S PARK

Sir Walter Gilbey, grand old ---- sportsman and President of the London----- ---Cart Horse society, attends the---- ----whitsuntide parade and judges the entries. He has now attended forty five----
---annual parades. Sir Walter and Lady Gilbey present the winners with their prizes. Drivers of these horses have burnished harness and brasses till they shine like Guards on parade and---- ---exhorted the horses to keep their istea tails up. The---- ----whole show is a ---- ----horse-lovers pageant. Six hundred old faithfuls in one parade and one driver who was---- ----decorated with a special medal for saving twenty horses from a burning building.
