ALDERSHOT JUBILEE TATTOO

ROYAL REHEARSAL

Among the fifty thousand children ----
----at the Tattoo rehearsal are two little Princesses ----
---Elizabeth and Margaret Rose are with their Mother-----
---the Duchess of York. Here are six hundred young soldiers of the Wiltshires and the----
---Cameron Highlanders forming up for a physical training and----
----club swinging kaleidoscope.-----
----That's what the programme says. I suppose----
---the idea of inviting these fifty thousand children----
---- is to bring----
----up the younger generation in the way-----
---they should think. There is certainly no-----
---more positive way of impressing military episodes upon----
---young minds than----
---by these wonderful living pictures staged ----
----at Ashmoor arena. This is the triple ride of the--- ---First Cavalry brigade.-----
---a spectacle presented by three famous regiments, ending in a thunderous charge which thrills---- every child in the vast audience.----
---But modern battles are more like this. EFFECTS.
FOUR EFFECTS SHOTS
---very thrilling to watch, not---
---so good to be in----
And the super grand finale----
---embodying the motif of the Silver Jubilee tattoo----
-----Kingship Loyalty to the Crown, Freedom-----
---attained by brotherhood and sacrifice; a theme of ---
---great nobility. EFFECTS TO FINISH.
