

BIG FIGHT PREPARATIONS.

PETERSON V. NEUSEL IN TRAINING.

Meet Mr. Walter Neusel, a--

--perfect gentleman until he gets into the ring, and that's, well, that's different.

Neusel is training for his fight with Jack Peterson--

--so he's practicing flattening out things. Every now and then he peels off another sweater like a conjuror. He's a safe strip-poker player.

Last time Neusel met Peterson, he put the Welshman off his feet and one on points. This time he hopes to-- --get a knock-out victory and no nonsense.

This exercise should assist in keeping his famous--

--right swing nice and--

--powerful. If he takes off another sweater --- no, he daren't. Never mind, we'll--

--see more of him at Wembley Stadium when he faces--

--Jack Peterson. Everybody thought Jack would be married by--

--this time, but one ring is enough at one time--

--many have discovered that without being boxers. Anyway,

--here's Jack in training, keeping one eye on the punchball and the other--

--on the heavyweight championship, that bag representing the other--

--fellow. Peterson is a hard worker in training and this--

--time he's determined to be fit as a--

--fiddle and ready for anything. The damaged eye which troubled--

--him in his previous fight with Neusel, is sound and his flashing right which has wone him many a--

--verdict has improved in power. Hand and wrist sound as a bell, in fact--

--like Neusel, he's just fit to win, so its going to be fun.
