Picture.:- This time the Police--
 --are being watched. From-- --cover. A sack race is one item--
 --in a lengthy program of events at the Metropolitan Police Sports, held--
 --at Colindale. P.C. Kelly--
 --wins that one, and Lord and Lady Trenchard-- --applaud. Mounted police are all smart--
 --enough to be winners, but P.C. Perkins--
 --is with difficulty selected as the smartest. The 220--
 --yards flat race gives little-- --hope for decamping thieves, and is won by--
 --P.C. McPhail in 20-seconds.

Tilting the bucket makes a wet day wetter, but--
 --adds to its--

--gaiety. Leaving Colindale for Paris,--
 --we see some more fast--
 --work, On the track of the Jardins des Tuileries, Marcel Thil-- --starts the 100 kilometres cycle-race.

This race is--
 --in celebration of the 50th anniversary of the opening--
 --of this unique track. I am not sure that the King who-- --built the Gardens--
 --wouldn't be rather horrified to know about it. Anyway the event is won by Guy--
 --Lapebée, So who cares ! Sedate--
