

MOTOR RACING HISTORY.

BRITISH TRIUMPH AT LE MANS.

Picture.:- Le Mans Grand Prix.

The cars are ready. It's--
--raining like the dickens--
--and off they go on a 24--
--hours dash through the day and night.

(EFFECTS - 6 SHOTS).

J.S. Hindmarsh finishes first,--
--and he will speak for himself.

(EFFECTS).

At Douglas, Isle of Man, crowds assemble--
--to see the--
--Junior T.T. Race. Competitors have to-- --ride over a--
--difficult course, but there's a good field--
--and likely to be--
--plenty of excitement. Bray Mill--
--claims no casualties, but news comes--
--through that one rider has met his death at Union Mills.

Here is Guthrie at Cragney Baa. He's a Scotsman and an experienced rider--

--in this race. At Governor's Bridge he's ahead, and--

--he's first past--

--the flag. Rush, a fine daring Irish rider is second.

Guthrie wins the trophy for the fourth time.
