

HIGHLAND GATHERING.

SCOTTISH FESTIVAL IN ENGLAND.

---

Picture.

(2 BAND SHOTS.)

And this is Blackpool, strange as it seems.
"Like the music, George?" "If that's music, I'm a song-bird!"

These are hundreds of competitors in the largest highland gathering--ever--

--held outside Scotland. George Mitchell, Scottish champion, tosses the caber successfully, and wins the event.

Children dance the Highland Fling, sometimes in step, sometimes not.

(LOUD EFFECTS).

"Say, can't we stand somewhere else?" "Hold everything, George. Tea's coming round."

"And you said this was a highland party!"

Among other prominent athletes visiting Blackpool is Percy--

--Philipsen, champion pole jumper of England, who beats his Scottish opponents by clearing 11-feet.
