Picture:- High Court judges attend their annual service at St. Paul's. London's Lord Mayor accompanies--

--then. There are Lord Chief Justice Hewart and Lady Hewart.

Possies of flowers are still carried by the judges, although London's sanitary conditions of to-day render their scent unnecessary. There's--

--Mr. Justice Humphries,--

--Master of the Rolls,--

--the Recorder and city judges, and after seeing these big shots of the land, let's hear some--

--of the sea. (EFFECTS).

And that's how two warships announce to Edinburgh people--

--that they have really arrived. "Wyoming" and "Arkansas" are--

--the ships' names. So if you guess they are American you have won. The ratings come ashore to tread the Scottish heather,--

--but find they have to buy it at 3d a sprig,--

--or get a week's leave to visit the Moors.

They decide that post-cards are cheaper and last longer.

The next call of the cruise is Oslo. More summer-
