PRINCE OF WALES AT WINDSOR.

Picture.:-

One thousand ex-service men and women, representing sixty Berkshire branches of the British Legion, march to St. George's Chapel--

--Windsor. From city, town, and village these legionnaires have come to attend a Silver Jubilee--

--Service of Thanksgiving. A bright sun adds glitter--

--and colour to the ranks of uplifted standards. His Royal Highness--

--the Prince of Wales also attends the service in company with the Earl of--

--Athlone and Princess Alice--

--Countess of Athlone. Doctor Baillie, Dean of Windsor, welcomed the Royal Party to the-- --Chapel for the Service.

Legion members reform their ranks and led by Major-General--

--Price-Davies, V.C. parade--

--before the Prince, who takes the salute of the --

--loyal procession marching beneath the gleaming blue and gold standards.
