(a). Picture.:- At Grays, Lady Kyres-Monsell presents prizes to the boys of the training-ship 'Warspite'. The wind is so high that if Lady Monsell did not stick pretty tightly to her hat, she would present them with that too. From--

(b). --naval to military, brings us to Aldershot. A9-
--glimpse at the Musical Ride of the Queens' Bays, the 2nd--
--Dragon Guards, in full dress, makes a-- --thrilling show. By the way, this is not the Tattoo. That's long dead as news. It's--
--the Aldershot Show. Having explained that,--

(c). --let's jump to Eastbourne, where the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress of London have arrived. They have just-- --completed the first journey of the new electric rail-service which connects many south-coast towns to London. Another breathless--
--jump brings us to Hastings. Here Mayor Alderman Blackman and his--
--Councillors welcome the visitors from London Town, and great enthusiasm prevails. The new service brings--
--the sunny South--
--nearer to London by measure of time, and gives the the engine-driver a day to remember.
