Europe invades London. Folk-dancers from eighteen European--

--nations, with queer national costumes, and queer--

--alleged musical instruments perform in Hyde Park. The International--

--Folk Dancing Festival sounded the call,--

--and from all corners of the continent came--

--these Ziganies, alpine mountaineers, neapolitan seranaders, swiss yodelers. Norwegians from the Fjords--

--take the sword. Dutch sabots beat the turf,--

--while Russian sailors look on with girls. Sailors--

--will be sailors, whatever nationality.

The champion Swiss Yodeler couldn't burst--

--into song--

--because of her--

--sore throat. So you--

--can be glad, or sorry, according to your--

--musical taste. Little Eric learned this while teething.

He led the dance then. The event is pleasing,--

--but the languages are awful.
