(c). Picture:- AMERICA. The latest fashion in ships.

A stream-lined seagoing--
--ferry-boat. It's the-- --monthly edition of--
--those first-of-its-kind--
--in-the-world affairs. One --
--of the constantly recurring ?--
--day wonders in this curious age,--
--where yesterday is out of--
--date. The ship is built--
--on luxury lines, lovely appointments,--
--restaurants, promenade decks,--
--private suites. In--
--fact, every modern American inconvenience.

(d). Picture:- GERMANY again. Berlin welcomes a delegation of the British Legion. Herr Von Ribbentrop meets Major F.W.C. Featherston-Godley,--

--leader of the British visitors. Leader Herr--
--Hitler receives them at the Chancellery. After various rumours--

--to the contrary, this reception--
--came rather as a surprise.

The conversation consisted chiefly of front--
--line reminiscences. The meeting of these--
--erst-while enemies was of the friendliest and most amicable nature.
