4. Harvard v. Yale

Stands at the white City-----

-----are crowded for the annual match between Yale and Harvard Universities of America and our own Oxford and-----

-----Cambridge. The hundred and twenty yards hurdles is won-----

-----by A.G. Milbrow of Oxford, -----

-----The 'hundred-yards -sprint' is a thrill, if a short one; but Duncan of Oxford, going like a hare-----

-----adds one more to the Britisher's score. -----

---Good work, Duncan, -----

---The 'putting the weight' event goes to Yale, through Johnson--

---but Duncan pulls off another ~~staxixxtae~~ fine win in the Long jump.-----

-----The Pole Vault goes to K. Brown of Yale....so well did the Americans-----

-----pick up that they won the match by a -----

-----small margin. (APPLAUSE TO END).
