

2 P42141

MOTOR-CYCLING ON THE SANDS.

SCOTTISH CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Picture.:-

One gets rather used to thrills at the seaside, but this is rather different. St. Andrews' sands are the venue for the Scottish Amateur Motor-Cycle speed championships. The finest riders from all parts of Scotland are here hoping to secure one or other of the titles at stake.

This particular race is the Medium-Weight Championship. Swanston, the Kirkealdy 'crack', leads Pattison of Inverkeithing a merry dance along by the sad sea waves. But Pattison soon "pulls him back" in masterly style, winning a run-away victory.

No doubt John Pattison
will long remember his day at the seaside !