In the beautiful grounds of the Alfred Merchant Seamen's Home at Belvedere, Chelsea Pensioners fight their annual bowls match against the old men of the sea.

The dear old chaps of Chelsea are determined to keep the Tufnell Challenge Cup which is the cause of it all.

Play is remarkably good, and both old and young get a kick out of it.

The veterans of the sea put up a good fight, but not good enough. The Chelsea men keep the Cup for another year.

(b). Picture.:- If you think that model yachting is-- --a kid's game, take a look at this ! At Fleetwood, serious minded men sail miniature yachts for the Championship of the British Empire.

And, believe it, or not, many people take a keen interest in the races. The performances of the tiny vessels are watched and recorded for reference.
