INTERNATIONAL ATHLETICS.
BRITAIN V FRANCE.

The athletic match between-----
 -----France and Great Britain at the White City. The Frenchmen
 -----are hoping that the Britishers won't repeat last----- -----years' success. -----
 -----The Hundred Yards. The critics rather expect a British----- -----victory with Sweeney as favourite. They're right, for he -
 -----wins by half a yard. -----
 -----The High Jump is not such a certainty-----
 -----and the French team starts its-----
 -----score with a win by Fuyfourast.-----
 -----The Two Miles Steeplechase is a hard grind. Last----- -----year Berolle beat Bailey by a fair margin, but Bailey looks like turning the tables now. -----
 -----He leads over the water jump, and by the time-----
 -----he is at the last hurdle-----
 -----he is the only one in the picture. Bailey----- adds five to the British score. -----
 -----The Pole Vault goes to France-----
 Remedier being the winner-----
 Final score, sixty-four -----fifty six in Britain -----
 -----favour us so the bouquet is ours this time.
