

BRITISH      CADET      BATTALION

TOUR      TO      BELGIUM.

Picture.:)

Six-hundred cadets from all parts of the British Isles are on their way to Belgium. .... It is a visit of goodwill to our old-war-time allies, and should go far to further cement the friendships made between the fathers of the boys and the Belgian people during the years 1914 to '18. .... The Battalion is under the command of Colonel P. Becker, with Lieutenant-Colonel A. Erskine-Murray as Chief Staff Officer.

The cadets have a number of engagements in Belgium, and will visit some of the battlefields of the Great War.

(EFFECTS). (3 CHEERS) OVER ENTIRE SHOT.

The battalion is to be honoured by His Majesty the King of the Belgians, who is to review them in Brussels.

EFFECTS (TRAIN & CHEERS) TO END OF STORY.
