Back in Germany again ! To watch a regiment with full--

--equipment crossing the River Oder without the aid of bridges.

Collapsible pontoons are used. After being inflated they are loaded with everything, except the horses,

and in a very short time, are well on the way to the opposite bank of the river.(EFFECTS TO END OF SHOT).

(EFFECTS OVER SWIMMING HORSES, THREE CAR, MID-STREAM, AND NEAR-SHORE SHOTS).

The horses are glad when the ordeal is over. (EFFECTS TO END OF SHOT).

All ashore, horses are harnessed and saddled, gear

is fixed, and the regiment moves on.
