America's foremost

mermaids put up a grand show at the National meet at Manhattan

Beach. .... Lenore Kight is defending her championship

title. .... At the turn she is ahead. ....

She increases her lead on the home stretch,
keeping her title by a big margin. ....

She is still

America's Number One mermaid !

Some of the most graceful diving ever seen is witnessed-- slowed up by the cameraman so that the perfect "poetry of motion" displayed may be appreciated to its full. ....

Last, but by no means last, comes Dorothy Poynton, high-diving champion. ....

A beautiful effort

by a girl

as clever as she is pretty.

Thanks a lot Dorothy !
