BELGIUM ! At Brussels Monsieur Eveze, Minister of National Defence, reviews 600 British Cadets. The lads are from all parts of the British Isles. That, perhaps, being the reason they are in assorted shapes and sizes. Despite their smartness they carry a slight air of disappointment. The inspection was to have been by King Leppold, but a last minute call of state prevented his attendance.

So the boys did not get quite the expected kick out of their visit.
