

2 pp 141

NEWPORT CARNIVAL.
FESTIVAL OF FUN.

Picture.:- Britannia rules the Newport Carnival, and the hair-dressers have ruled the waves. Be it ever so homely, there's no place like Newport.

She was a lovely trusting maid and he was a gay cavalier.

This is really a marvellous carnival, with a marvellous queen, Oddsbodykins.

Newport always does these things exceptionally well, and the hospitals do well out of them too. It's a show the public doesn't mind paying for. This year the decorated cars touched artistic heights in modern design, and the collectors touch the crowds for a bit on account of the Royal Gwent Hospital.

The fame of the fete has attracted many thousands into the town, and the holiday spirit bubbles like a fountain. The civic officials get lots of congratulations on the show, and the Mayor exercises his perogative. Hold it ! He's no beginner !