

DEAF AND DUMB OLYMPIAD.

INTERNATIONAL MEETING

Picture.:- Every four years Deaf and Dumb athletes from European countries meet for their Olympiad. Meetings have been held at Paris, Nuremberg, and Amsterdam.

Now it's London's turn. The Prince of Wales is patron of the games.

An interpreter translates the Prince's message, read aloud by Lord

Desborough, into sign language.

The silent athletes watch. The 1500 metres race ! The runners start at the pistol smoke, not the shot. Eight countries compete in this race. Britain is third, Sweden second, and Bouscuret of France wins.

The pole vault is contested by Finland, Norway Denmark, Sweden, France and Britain. Vassall of Britain breaking the record. The 100 metres hurdles race ! Alie of France wins the heat in marvellous style. Congratulations to those strong, silent, sports people.
