

C-145141

(CONT).

(D). Picture:-

OREGON ! A locomotive and two freight waggons crashed one hundred feet, when a light trestle gave way, as a train was passing over this narrow gorge. Five men were instantly killed, and several injured. There was also a coachful of passengers, but this luckily broke away just before the fateful ravine plunge.

---