(C). Picture:- The 17th Century meets the 20th Century. The East Yorkshires celebrate their 250th anniversary at Beverley.
A week of events is commenced by a full dress-parade of the Regiment at Victoria Barracks.

Brigadier-General Clarke, C.M.G, their Colonel, receives and returns the salute. After this formal parade, the week's high-jinks commence - - dancing and what-nots !

(D). Picture:- And another celebration comes from Salford.
The Rechabites

mark the birthplace

of their Order with a plaque,

unveiled by the High Chief

Ruler. So, if you wish to see it, there it is !
