

2-125141
2525141

(CONTINUED).

- (C). Picture:- The 17th Century meets the 20th Century. The East Yorkshires celebrate their 250th anniversary at Beverley. A week of events is commenced by a full dress-parade of the Regiment at Victoria Barracks. Brigadier-General Clarke, C.M.G, their Colonel, receives and returns the salute. After this formal parade, the week's high-jinks commence - - dancing and what-nots :
-

- (D). Picture:- And another celebration comes from Salford. The Rechabites mark the birthplace of their Order with a plaque, unveiled by the High Chief Ruler. So, if you wish to see it, there it is :
-