

NEWS IN BRIEF.

(E). Picture.: There are about two million people, and one ship, on the rocks this week. The trawler 'Gareloch' of Aberdeen, steaming in a dense fog, hit the rocks at Anstruther, and lies in a bad position. She is broadside, and it's unlikely that efforts at floating her off will be successful. She was running easy when the ship struck, and the crew of five got safely ashore.

Deptford visits Deptford. H.M. new sloop makes the acquaintance of her new town and borough. Captain F.B. Bowlby comes ashore and sets his course for the Town Hall, where he is received by the Mayor of Deptford, and invited to take a dish of tea, and the crew comes too. I suppose they do drink tea. Anyway the program also extends to a cinema show, and other hospitality, which goes down well. The 'Deptford' goes for the Persian Gulf on September 5th. Here's yash mack !
