BOYS' GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.

RECORD ENTRY.

Picture.:-

Lads of the new golf brigade prepare to club their way to success on fairway and green. 173 youths take part in the 15th annual boys' golf club championships on the Royal Aberdeen Links. Their ages range from thirteen to eighteen years.

James Beagrie, of Croyden Bay, smacks a long one, and Iain MacDonald, of Sussex County School, shows his elders how to beat a bunker.

Retired golfing colonels seek for new adjectives to describe their fozzles after seeing these youngsters playing like old-hands, and confidently holing out in ones !

More boys, sir, putting like pro's and sinking the ball - - just like that !
