

NEWS FROM ABROAD.

2-555141
[57019] 2-855141

Picture.:-

Scattered over the face of the world are lovely mountains and dales, forests, and plains, calm peaceful rivers, and blue seas. There is a theory that these natural beauties were created for man - - to charm his eye, lift his thought, to provide him with good food for mind and body. Of course, that's an old-fashioned theory. Another curious old theory was that when heroic combat became displaced by cruel steel robots which took wholesale killing in their brainless stride, we civilised people would, well, just, wouldn't stand for anything so terribly foolish. Of course, the people who believed in these silly theories can now see how childish and impossible they were.

Let's take a tour round the world. You have just been looking over some beauty spots of La Belle France.

(EFFECTS TO END OF THIS SECTION).

Picture.:- For a pleasant change of air, come on a cruise off the wonderful Kiel Canal, and out into the Baltic Sea. The seascape is perfect. The glimpses one gets of the German coast line are equally perfect. The sound of the restless, lapping, waters, the occasional call of sea-gulls, is a natural symphony. In fact, as the poet says "Only man is vile."

141/8-2-87 [S 7072]

(CONTINUED).

(EFFECTS TO END).