KING'S CUP AIR RACE

1000 MILES CONTEST

Twenty nine planes line up in the eliminating contest for the Kings Cup Air Race-----

-----There goes the Duke of Kent's machine, piloted by E.W. Percival. The course---

-----is nine hundred and fifty miles round Britain. The field is soon thinned out by starters who----- -----couldn't start, or retired, or had bad luck. One came down in the sea. F.G.-----

-----Hiles wins this contest, and now comes the final hectic three hundred and fifty miles for the ---- -----coveted trophy presented by His Majesty the King. At two hundred miles Captain Hope was leading-----

---but the winning bird man is Tommy Cose, piloting the Viscountess Wakefield's machine-- a Miles Falcon.
