

2008171

RUGBY LEAGUE CUP T.I.E.

SWINTON V WARRINGTON.

---

Picture.:

The Rugby League Match for the Lancashire Cup. Warrington take the field in their yellow jerseys, but that's the only yellow thing about them, and Swinton follows in dark-blue.

The stiff cross

wind makes play not too easy, and the tactics of some of the players is as difficult as the wind. Swinton dominates the game most of the time, although Warrington is responsible for a few bright spots. Swinton's shots at scoring are numerous, but that there wind plays the dickens with judgment. The general play holds a certain amount of excitement, and the scrums have a liveliness which some members find just too impressive. However, nobody goes to hospital. They take it on the chin and still stand up, but I have seen heavyweight boxers go out for less. However, the result is a draw, two points each. Honours, if any, easy !