

MANCHESTER TO BLACKPOOL.

RELAY RACE.

Picture.:- Twenty-five teams of harriers run away from Manchester as fast as they can. It is the Manchester to Blackpool Relay Race. At Bolton, Stockport Harriers pass the baton over; with the Hallamshire Harriers close on their heels. At Chorley, Birchfield Harriers, the present champions, have taken charge of the Baton; the car carrying light refreshments.

After twenty-five miles, at the half-way, Birchfield Harriers change over, sticking to the baton like a designing widow to a bachelor. Preston is full of excitement, and the Birchfielders are full of hope. Lytham Road sees

L.A. Garvey leading. A lot of rain and people greet the runners at Blackpool.

Sutherland taking the honours for Birchfield, and receiving honours from Blackpool's Mayor. The Birchfield boys put up a great performance, and Sutherland re-appears covered with glory and cheeks, which are not all prizes.
