KENNEL CLUB SHOW.

3,000 ENTRIES.

---

Picture.:- Another record broken ! It's the Kennel Club Show this time !

Of all the 74 shows promoted by this Club, this show is the show of shows ! Three-thousand dogs under one roof. And all with a clean licence to show the judges. Bungalow dogs with short legs for long ceilings are popular. Blue Bedlingtons sniff disdainfully at long haired Dachshunds, because of their German descent, I suppose. Ah ! Mastiff !, I think, but a dog by another name would smell as sweet.

Afghan hounds have a style all of their own, and the old English Sheep dog is both useful and ornamental.

Another Mastiff ! Fine fellow - friend of man - - faithful and all that !

And the prize dog of the Show Champion Heather Realisation, a Scottish terrier belonging to Mr R. Chapman.
