

DUCHESS OF YORK.

VISIT TO DUNDRE.

Picture.:- From Glamis Castle, where Her Royal Highness is staying, the Duchess of York visits the land settlement scheme and model houses of the modern settlers. Her Royal Highness is accompanied by her sister Lady Rose Levenson-Gower. This back-to-the-land question is one of the Duchess's great interests, and from Dryburgh she visits the second scheme at

Barns of Claverhouse, where a similar development is taking place. A very dull rainy day was brightened when a member of the Board of Agriculture introduced the Duchess to the assembled company as Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent, but the correction was graceful and timely. The smallholders welcome to the Duchess was as sincere as it was noisy.
