Picture.:- Abyssinia ! This time from the Italian side of the front line. Eritrea ! Mussolini's sons, Bruno and Vittorio, are amongst those who attend this ceremony. Native Warriors are assembled to see their chiefs give homage to Italy under the shadow of tanks, guns, and bombing 'planes.

Their submission is celebrated with much rejoicing, and even the local military

band is allowed to play.

The conductor would be a terrific success in cabaret ! Someone said his name was Ras-Berry !!, but , of course !! (EFFECTS).

General De Bono receives the Chiefs, and presents them with documents giving them Italy's written authority and permission to govern their provinces. With General De Bono, Chief of the Italian Forces in Eritrea are the Duce's two sons and

Count Ciano, his son-in law. This gathering was highly successful.

Onorific titles are bestowed upon several high caste natives, and cheers for Il Duce were loyally responded to !
