

NEWS IN BRIEF.

(A) Picture.:- Three Mayors (civic variety), hailing from Broadstairs, Margate, and Ramsgate, - Alderman Pettman, Margate, centre, being 78 years of age, (doesn't the bait look 'orrid ?) take part in a fishing competition at Margate.

It's a very exclusive contest, because only these three mayors can take part.

The starting-gun, or whatever they use to start a fishing competition is fired. Well, Ramsgate's Mayor got the prize; Broadstairs' Mayor got soaked (it was raining), and Margate's Mayor's rheumatics are no better, thank you.

America's gliding ace is to try the trickiest stunt of his career. Despite a nasty cross-wind, he's going to attempt a landing right inside his hangar. With a clearance of only two feet he does it ! Stops from thirty miles per hour in forty-feet, and the back-door wasn't open, neither !
