

PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLES.

OLD AND NEW MEMBERS.

---

Picture.:- After all the swearing about the Election comes the swearing-in of members. The new Parliament assembles. Messrs Stuart - Taylor - Ritson - Whitensy - are new North-East coast mining district labour members. Thomas Cook, Norfolk North

Labour. George Lathan, Sheffield. And Fred Montague, Islington,

Labour. Lord Strabolgi, formally Commander Kenworthy. Sir

Charles Edwards, Monmouthshire, Conservative.

J.A. Leckie, Liberal National Walsall.

J.J. Lawson, Chesterley Street, Durham, Labour.

A.G. Walkden, Bristol South, Labour.

P.A. Monroe and G. Rolands, Welsh Unionist.

Captain Fitzroy and his wife arrive. Captain Fitzroy is, of course, the speaker, representing Daventry.

Next come two Cabinet members,

Mr. Anthony Eden and Mr. Ormsby-Gore. League and Works portfolios.

Captain H.F. Crookshank, Lincoln and Rutland Unionist.

And now to see more of the real people going into Number Ten Downing Street. An early arrival is Mr. Duff Cooper, new Secretary for War.

Sir Kingsley Wood retains his post as Minister of Health, and looks a good example of health !

Sir Walter Runciman continues at the Board of Trade. Mr. Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Sir Bolton Eyres Monsell, First Lord of the Admiralty.

Mr. Malcolm MacDonald is Dominions Secretary. His constituents---

sacked - - er - - didn't elect him, but the will of the people shall prevail. Sir Samuel Hoare is Foreign Secretary, and then the camera catch Mr. J.H. Thomas, still smiling, who returns as Secretary of the Colonies.

Lord Eustace Percy, without portfolio.
You see he's back again.

Well, there they are. Some of the men of Mr. Baldwin's new Cabinet. And now what ?
