

2-005141

SANTA CLAUS ARRIVES.

WELCOME TO CANADA.

---

Picture:-

Toronto celebrates Christmas. Rather early, perhaps, but there's a reason. Fancy finding that in your sock on Christmas morning. All sorts of attractive things are represented, both living and clock-work, which in smaller editions will gladden the hearts of lots of Canadian kiddies this Christmas time.

There's a whoozer of a sugar stiek ! Although little Willie would probably prefer a cage full of these. Without the real genuine Santa Claus and his reindeers, the procession wouldn't be complete, so here is the old man himself. (Santa Clays, I mean ). A great store is responsible, but I mustn't mention names.

You might go there to buy your presents.