NEW BIRMINGHAM

FIRE STATION.

OPENED BY DUKE OF KENT.

---

Picture:- Birmingham's new Fire Station is ready for accepting orders to deal with promising outbreaks. His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent pays

Birmingham the great compliment of opening the Station, and furthermore present<sup>ing</sup>/the Brigade's Medal to those who have served for twenty-to thirty-five years, and the Fire Brigades' Associations' Medal for 15 years service.

The Lord Mayor, in his welcome to the Duke, claimed that the City's new Fire Station was, and is the finest of its kind in the whole country. So before London, or Manchester, replies, we will heartily congratulate Birmingham.
