AIR RAID PANIC
IN ADDIS ABABA
CAUSED BY CABLE TO CAMERAMAN.

Picture:- The first joke of the latest war has arrived (at least the first for mixed company).

A few days ago Addis Ababa was plunged into a ferment. All exits were crowded with people getting out as fast as they could, and it happened this wise. One of UNIVERSAL'S cameramen wanted to spend Christmas at home, and cabled for permission. The reply was "Remain. Addis. Ababa probably next place to be bombed". Well, you know what Post Offices are. The innocent alarming looking news got out. The wind got up. People, completely taken in started to get out, and the harmless homesick cameraman got in.
