The weather in East Lothian is cold, but hearts are warm. East Fortune Sanatorium nurses are getting busy, gathering in holly and mistletoe, and mistletoe.

A Christmas Tree is being specially out down for the great day which will make a bright and long remembered spot in the strictly ordered life of the 200 Sanatorium dwellers. The out-size Christmas Tree is loaded for the Hospital. Soon it will be loaded in a different way by the good matron and nurses. All prizes and no blanks. Let's hope that all the patients eventually get what they most desire. Nine Elms, London also gets busy. At this station scores of truckloads of holly and mistletoe come from the country to make gay the houses of city dwellers. Maybe some of you girls will get bitten under a bunch of these very berries. If so, remember not to hold up the queue. Fair do's.

The same loads are despatched to Mayfair mansion and Tottenham Tenement, serving the same purpose. Human nature's rummy staff!
