POWDERHALL MARATHON AND SPRINT.

Picture.:-

The Powderhall Meeting at Edinburgh.

The big event is the Marathon. Thirty-nine runners start on - - hello ! betting strictly prohibited ! - - Thirty-nine runners keep running to punish ten miles of grass, and try to beat the other thirty-eight. The winner is

R.W. Andrews of Ross-on-Wye. Starting from scratch, he repeated his success of last year, and received the much run after cup

and congratulations from Mrs. Wood. G.Frow of Killingsholme finished second.

The 150-yards sprint provided a surprise result. A.W. Green was an odds-on favourite until J.H. Mitchell pulled down the time of his heat.

This Liverpool footballer won the event, and received £100,

with gold medal, which is not too bad !
