

GOOD BYE, ALL BLACKS!
NEW ZEALANDERS LEAVE FOR HOME.

---

Picture.:-

Buxton ! The 'All Blacks' say goodbye to Britain, and start for home. Sportsman Atkins doesn't look too sad about it. Neither does Gilbert. He looked much more grim as full-back. Winard, Reid and Best look fairly happy too. All the members of the team leave behind a thousand lot of good friends, and a few hundred/acquaintances of their fans, who have seen and appreciated their skill and sportsmanlike play. But despite their magnificent team-work their performance fell somewhat short of the record of the previous New Zealand teams.

On the 'Duchess of York' at Liverpool, Manager Meridith receives a ball of heather for luck, and we hope the gales will drop, and allow them a pleasant voyage home. For All Blacks, they are the whitest men I know.

Good bye, sportsmen ! We will be seeing you !
