

2521541

ROYALTY IN PARIS

KING BORIS and

KING CAROL.

---

Picture.:-

King Boris of

Bulgaria is one of a number of Kings and Princes who have recently made Paris the scene of a European guessing competition. Prince Starhemberg of Austria is one of his callers. Another

King, Carol of Rumania, does homage to the French war-dead, by placing a wreath of flowers on the Unknown Warriors tomb. Much exchange of political views has taken place, which it is hoped will advance the policy of security. As nations seldom have peace talks and make war at the same time, everyone will probably pray that they keep on talking. After the ceremony at the Soldier's tomb, King Carol signs the Golden Book recording his visit.