NEWS IN BRIEF.

(D) Picture:-

Mr. Charles Cruft holds his golden jubilee Dog Show at the Royal Agricultural Hall. He must be a proud man. At his first show there were under six-hundred entries, and the small and large of it is there are eleven-thousand this year. There is "University Draftsman", I think.

A perfect gentleman !, Very bored and very superior.

But not more so than "Rajah King", a prize-winning rival.

"Prince Coronach", a show, owned by Miss Annett, and a set of fashionable quads - clumber spaniels, of aristocratic pedigree. A few sizes larger are elk-hounds. Rather rare animals.

More easily handled are Miss Bliss's Yorkshire Terriers, of very good family !

And this one, you can work out for yourselves !
