

CANNES REGATTA

MANY RENOWNED COMPETITORS.

Picture.:-

It's a nice day for a sail. And it's the day of the Regatta
at Cannes. The bay looks a perfect picture.

The breeze is fresh and steady, and the air kindly and mild. In fact, as I said before, it's a nice day for a sail. It's the royal regatta, too.

Yachts of many nations have come to compete in the notable events which make up the program. Sailing his own royal yacht in an international race is the King of Denmark. Well, Cannes looks

a good place to be in just about now.

It might cure one chilblains and 'acking courgh !
