

RACING REVIVES

AFTER 36 "DEAD" DAYS.

Picture. :-

After 36 "dead" days

for the racing fraternity, the bookies have grabbed hats, and fat cigars to keep appointments at

Kempton Park to grab the punters' investments. Oh, they're off ! It's the 3.30 Emblem

Handicap Steeplechase. "Castle Irwell", the grand-national horse, is on the card, but is not a starter.

Mr. M.H. Benson's

"Reviewer" is the only Grand National entry in the race.
Passing the stands the first time round "Cranford St.
Andrew"

has a lead of lengths. "Buck Willow" is his most dangerous challenger at the water jump, but the Dale trained horse holds

its advantage. "Reviewer" has fallen back, and is only running third. Close on "Buck Willow's" heels, "Santa Klaus" near favourite is running well, minus jockey, which isn't so

good, and even at the finish, he passes the post first, but riderless. "Cranford St. Andrew" wins, with "Buck Willow" and "Reviewer" placed !
