

2105541

NEW SUBMARINE

"GRAMPUS" LAUNCHED.

---

Picture. :-

The Navy's babyest submarine lies in her cradle at Chatham ready for launching into the big bad world. Detectives stand by too. Valuable babies like this may have political gangsters watching them, with sinister intentions. Sabotage is a nasty crime. The underwater craft is christened 'Grampus' by Lady Evans, wife of Vice-Admiral Evans

of the Broke. The releasing ribbon is cut, and His Majesty's submarine 'Grampus' begins her first journey seawards. (EFFECTS)

(EFFECTS)

And here's hoping she has a quiet peaceful life !